

Remarks

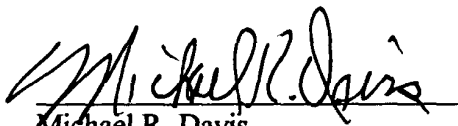

Instead of entering the National Phase of the International Application on which the present U.S. application is based, Applicants are filing a Continuation application of the International Application.

Accordingly, the specification has been amended to insert a cross reference to the International Application.

The claims have been amended to avoid their multiple dependency, in order to reduce the filing fee, as a result of which new claims 15-24 have been added to the application.

Respectfully submitted,

Mari HARA et al.
